Where Am I? What's Happening?

Bonus Questions

1. I am walking with a friend toward a town seven miles from Jerusalem. We are both sad and confused about the death of Jesus. A stranger joins us. He explains many things to us. When we stop to eat, the man does something familiar. Suddenly we know he is Jesus, and he is alive! (See Luke 24:13-31.)

Where am I going? _____

What familiar thing does Jesus do? _____

2. I am going to get water from the well. I see a man waiting by the well. He is a Jew but he asks me for a drink. I ask him why he would want a drink from me, a Samaritan. He replies that if I knew who he really was and asked him for a drink, he would give me living water. (See John 4:5-10.)

Where am I? _____

What is the name of the well? _____

Who is the man? _____
