

LITURGY AND ME

1. My favorite liturgical season of the Church Year is (Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, or Ordinary Time)

because

2. When I think back to the different liturgies and prayer services I have participated in over the years, the one I liked the most was

because

3. What would I say to a friend who asks me why Catholics go to Mass every week?

4. When I think about the many different ways parishioners can minister to the assembly at Mass (usher, lector, choir, musician, extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, altar server), the ministry that most interests me is

5. The part of the Mass that is most meaningful for me is
