

First Friday of Advent

December 8

Feast of the Immaculate
Conception of the Virgin Mary

Today's Scripture Reading: Luke 1:37-38

Angels come in many different forms and they usually carry a special message. Some angels appear as friends, some as strangers, some as a quiet voice deep inside of you. Pay attention and act accordingly. Oh, don't worry! You will KNOW when a message is from God.

The angel Gabriel is having a conversation with Mary about God's desire that she become the mother of Jesus. Let's tune in.

(Gabriel says,) "For nothing will be impossible with God." Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

Warm-up: Advent calls us to look inside ourselves, to be reflective. Who and what has carried the message of God to you over this past year? Name those "angels."

Reflection: Briefly tell about a time when you responded to what you KNEW was God's desire for you to be or to do.
