ANSWERS to CATHOLIC IQ

1. a) “At the Last Supper, on the night he was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic sacrifice of his Body and Blood. This he did in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the cross throughout the ages until he should come again” (CCC, 1323).
2. d) The earliest Christians received all the sacraments of initiation together as do present-day adult converts at Easter through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).
3. c) “The Eucharist is ‘the source and summit of the Christian life.’ The other sacraments, and indeed all ministries . . . are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it” (CCC, 1324).
4. b) Deacons and bishops also baptize. In emergencies, anyone can baptize (Canon Law, 861).
5. d) An annulment recognizes that a previous legal marriage was never a sacramentally valid marriage (cf. Canon Law, 1055-1165). Jesus forbade divorce (cf. Matthew 19:3-9).
6. True. Extreme Unction means “last anointing” and refers to how this sacrament was commonly associated with the last rites given to a dying Catholic.
7. d) “Confirmation perfects baptismal grace; it . . . incorporates us more firmly into Christ, strengthens our bond with the Church, associates us more closely with her mission, and helps us bear witness to the Christian faith in words accompanied by deeds” (CCC, 1316).
8. a) Holy oils are blessed by the bishop at the annual Chrism Mass on Holy Thursday (cf. CCC, 1297).
9. a) After the consecration, Jesus is truly present on the altar: Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity (cf. CCC, 1413).
10. b) The apostles were all later considered saints too. Peter, the leader of the apostles, is seen as the first Pope (cf. Matthew 16:13-19).
11. False. Adults and older children can be baptized once they receive instruction in the Catholic faith, usually through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).
12. c) The priest, through his ordination, acts in persona Christi when he celebrates Mass, hears confessions, or anoints the sick (cf. CCC, 1348).
13. d) Catholics facing a serious illness or a major surgery can request an anointing from a priest.
14. d) Mortal sin separates us from communion with God. “They necessitate a new initiative of God’s mercy and a conversion of heart . . . accomplished through the sacrament of reconciliation” (CCC, 1854-56, see also 1395).
15. False. Water is not used in Confirmation. Candidates are anointed — chrismated — by the bishop (or priest) with sacred chrism oil.
16. a) Baptism is the first and most important profession of faith because it makes us Christians.
17. b) “On Sundays and other holy days of obligation the faithful are bound to participate in the Mass” (CIC, 1247; see also CCC, 2192).
18. a) “The promise of obedience priests make to the bishop at the moment of ordination and the kiss of peace from him at the end of the ordination liturgy mean that the bishop considers them his co-workers, his sons, his brothers and his friends, and that they in return owe him love and obedience” (CCC, 1567).
19. c) Also known as the Divine Office, the Liturgy of the Hours sanctifies the day with prayers to be said every hour, including psalms, Bible readings, and reflections from saints. All priests and religious are expected to pray it daily.
20. False. Genuflecting (or bowing) shows respect and reverence for Christ’s presence in the tabernacle.

ANSWERS to KIDS’ QUIZ

1. b) Making the Sign of the Cross with holy water reminds Catholics that they were baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
2. a) The Eucharist is truly the Body of Christ, not a symbol. In receiving Communion, Catholics are transformed into Christ’s living Body so we can bring Christ out of the Church and into the world (CCC, 1396).
3. d) At Baptism a person is reborn as a child of God, freed from original sin, and made a member of the Church.
4. True. Catholics are obliged to worship and show respect to God. Going to Sunday Mass is the best way to do this (CCC, 2181).
5. c) The sacrament of Penance, also known as Reconciliation, restores our relationships with God and other people when we have sinned against them (CCC, 1496).
6. c) Nine months before the first Christmas, Mary said yes to the angel Gabriel and received Jesus into her womb (see Luke 1:26-38). Therefore, she was the first tabernacle to hold the body of Christ.
7. a) Jesus, the Son of God, was sent by the Father to save the world from sin and Satan.
8. a) Also known as the wise men, the magi worshiped and adored the Christ Child, presenting him with gifts worthy of a king: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Catholics still worship Jesus at Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration, bringing him the gift of our hearts.
9. d) Advent is a preparation time to spiritually make room for Jesus to be born into our lives on Christmas.
10. False. Even though Jesus was the most powerful king ever born, his birth was in a stable with animals. Real power comes from humility, love, and mercy, not from money or important jobs.
