ANSWERS TO Catholic I.Q.

from pages 30 and 31

1. a) "The Church's social teaching offers wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society" (see USCCB.org.)

2. d) St. Paul started new churches wherever he journeyed. His letters (to the Corinthians, Romans, Galatians, etc.) provide the basis for many Catholic beliefs.

3. c) Without money or power, St. Francis learned to depend on God and others. He was so poor that he had nothing to protect or take care of, so he had more time for God's work.

4. b) Descendants of the Christians who first heard about Jesus from St. Thomas (circa A.D. 52) still exist today in Kerala, India.

5. d) Pope Leo XIII wrote the encyclical Rerum Novarum to express the Church's concern for laborers and defend the rights of workers.

6. False. The U.S. Bishops call racism a sin, America's "original sin." All people are God's children and therefore equal (see CCC, 1935).

7. d) God created the world for everyone to share. "The goods of creation are destined for the entire human race. The right to private property does not abolish the universal destination of goods" (CCC, 2452).

8. c) "The long-range future of this nation is intimately linked with the well-being of families" (Economic Justice for All, n. 93, U.S. Bishops).

9. a) People's value is not measured by what they contribute to the economy or society. Therefore Catholics recognize the intrinsic worth of the unborn, the elderly, the sick, the disabled, the poor, and even those in prison for terrible crimes.

10. b) Examples of rules for war include: no excessive force, no targeting non-soldiers, no attacking first, fighting only as a last resort and for a just cause.

11. True. Life in prison is sufficient to protect society. The death penalty eliminates any chance for a convicted criminal to repent and turn to Christ (CCC, 2267).

12. a) One of the most successful missionaries ever, St. Francis Xavier baptized an estimated 30,000 people. After a dispute over where his incorrupt body would be kept, the right arm that baptized so many was cut off and taken to Rome while the rest of his body remained in Goa, India.

13. d) Unlike the rich, the poor are often unable to take care of themselves and need our help.

14. d) St. Paul says we are one body, so what affects one impacts all of us. God calls us to work for the common good and not just ourselves.

15. True. Missionaries bring Christ's light into darkness and his love to places of injustice, violence, and hate. Every Christian's job is to bring Christ's light and love wherever they go (see Mark 16:15).

16. a) Catholics live their faith by caring for people and all of God's creation. The earth is not just our common home; it will be the home for all generations to come.

17. b) God commanded his followers to protect these vulnerable people from being hurt. Vulnerable people in our world such as refugees, the unborn, and the homeless need our help today.

18. a) Christ laid down his life and expects us to do the same by giving up what we want for the good of others.

19. c) God is love, and we are made in God's image. Love and service is what makes us most alive and happy.

20. True. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. Workers' rights come from God and take priority over economic gains.

Kids' Quiz

1. b) When we help people, we are really helping Jesus. He said: "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

2. a) The word "Apostle" means "be sent." When Jesus sent his closest 12 disciples to spread his teachings to the whole world, they became the 12 Apostles.

3. d) Catholics believe all of life is sacred from the moment of conception until natural death. Only God decides when life begins or ends.

4. False. Since Jesus cared about people's problems — sick children, no wine at a wedding, hungry people — the Catholic Church has always cared, as well.

5. c) The US bishops teach: "Care for the earth is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation."

6. c) When missionaries provide medicine and education to people in need, the people want to know why they are so kind and generous. Then the missionaries tell them about Jesus.

7. b) Before Catholics provided education for the poor, only the rich and the powerful could educate their children.

8. a) The Catholic tradition instructs us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first.

9. d) After Cain killed his brother Abel, the Lord asked Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He answered, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" (Genesis 4:9). The answer for Catholics is "Yes, we are our brother's keeper."

10. False. Catholic sisters, brothers, lay people, and even families have served as missionaries around the world for months, years, or for their entire lives.
