ANSWERS TO Catholic I.Q.

From pages 47

1. d) Catholics pray in front of the tabernacle in recognition of Christ's presence there. Consecrated hosts from the tabernacle are brought to the sick and homebound who cannot attend Mass.
2. a) Blessed Imelda had such a deep love for Christ in the Eucharist that the consecrated host appeared over her when she prayed in front of the tabernacle.
3. c) Christ himself invites us to receive the Eucharist and receive eternal life from him.
4. b) Christ is the word made flesh that is given to us through his teachings in the Scriptures as well as in the sacraments.
5. d) Eucharist is how the faithful express their gratitude to the Father for creating all things, for saving us through Christ, and for making us holy through the Holy Spirit (see CCC, 1360).
6. False. "In the ... Eucharist 'the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained' [Council of Trent]. 'This presence is called 'real' ... that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present.' [Paul VI]" (CCC, 1374).
7. d) After the change at the consecration, the bread and wine still look, feel, and taste the same. However, their inner substance has been completely changed into the Body and Blood of Christ.
8. c) Loving God and our neighbor is the beginning of heaven in this life. Full communion with God only happens after death when we see God face-to-face. Choosing to not love God and our neighbor excludes us from communion with God and results in eternity in hell (see CCC, 1033).
9. a) The Gospel of John doesn't describe the bread and wine (Body and Blood of Holy Communion) like the other Gospels. For John's Gospel, the assumption is that everyone knows about the Eucharist, but the first Christians needed to be reminded that it wasn't enough to just receive Communion if they didn't follow Christ's example of love and service for others (see 1 John 3:14-15).

10. b) "The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. ... The faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin" (CCC, 2181).
11. True. The Bible and the Church Fathers testify to a universal belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. St. Justin Martyr wrote a description of Mass around A.D. 153 that is almost identical to the Mass today.
12. a) St. Thomas Aquinas used the term transubstantiation to describe how this miraculous change of bread and wine into body and blood happens: the external form stays the same but the substance changes (see CCC, 1376).
13. d) Even though Mass is not celebrated on Good Friday in recognition of Jesus' death, Holy Communion is still distributed from hosts consecrated from the Holy Thursday Mass.
14. d) "Anyone who is aware of having committed a mortal sin must not receive holy communion ... without having first received sacramental absolution" (CCC, 1457).
15. False. Eastern Orthodox churches who do not recognize the full authority of the Pope have celebrated the Eucharist since the beginning of Christianity (see CCC, 1399).
16. a) Through the grace of their ordination, only priests can celebrate Mass and offer absolution in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (see CCC, 1411).
17. b) Sins that do not rupture our relationship with God as mortal sins do are forgiven through the grace of the Eucharist and the contrition of the person.
18. a) Viaticum means "provisions for the journey." For those who are dying, Jesus' promise brings great comfort: "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day" (John 6:54).
19. c) Just like at Mass, Jesus at the Last Supper raised the cup of wine and said: "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed ... for the forgiveness of sins" (Matthew 26:28).

20. True. Baptism is the beginning of the Christian life. Without it, a person has not begun their initiation into the Body of Christ with which they seek communion during the Eucharist.

Kids' Quiz

1. b) By responding "amen" before receiving Communion, we are stating "yes, we believe" that the Eucharist is Christ.
2. a) Catholics believe that Christ is fully present — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity — in the Eucharist at every Mass.
3. c) When a child knows the difference between ordinary bread and wine and the consecrated Body and Blood of Christ at Mass, they have reached the age of reason and can receive Communion.
4. False. Christ is sacramentally fully present under each of the species. All the graces of the Eucharist are received even if only the bread is received (see CCC, 1390).
5. d) Because the Eucharist is actually the Lord, it is treated with the utmost respect and consumed immediately, uniting Catholics with Christ in a holy communion (see the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 161).
6. b) At every Mass, the priest takes, blesses, breaks, and gives the consecrated bread — the Body of Christ — to the people (see CCC, 1329).
7. a) Christ desires communion with us, therefore the Church offers the Eucharist every day for those who wish to seek the deepest friendship with the Lord.
8. c) Every Mass is a re-presentation of what happened in Jesus' life, from the Last Supper on Holy Thursday through the suffering and death of Jesus on Good Friday and culminating on Easter when Christ rose from the dead.
9. True. Attending Sunday Mass provides Catholics with time to worship God and celebrate the day Christ rose from the dead. Sunday is the Christian holy day and day of rest (see CCC, 2042, 2181).
10. a) The chalice that Jesus used at the Last Supper is known as the Holy Grail because it was the first cup to hold Jesus' sacred blood.
